

Reference

Coating of underground pipelines

Purchaser
Gas provider

J.H.K. service
Renovation

Venue
Germany

Project period
2017

With our competences in the field of coating of underground pipelines we are convincing these long-time customers. The corrosion protection of an underground pipeline was newly set up in winding and hot spraying processes. This manufacturing procedure is used for underground pipelines for the transportation of different media.

Oil and gas

Energy industry

Process industry

Ship building

Offshore

Order

- Special coating according to customers' requirements

Service provision

- Specialists realize requirements consistently
- Competent planning and support of performance from one source

Benefits for our customers

- + Direct contact on site
- + Certified according to WRG and DVGW
- + Performance according to TRBF and others
- + Flexible in time and dimension
- + Our customers are in our focus

Operating company:

J.H.K. Industriebeschichtung GmbH & Co. KG
Meyelheide 5
26197 Großenkneten

Interest in more examples of our performance? Visit us online at www.jhk.de